

Dr. Lenneal Henderson is a national treasure! He earned a Doctorate at Berkeley, where he met and began working with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Dr. Henderson stayed in the tents, while it rained the entire duration, on the mall in DC following Dr. King's death for the Poor People's campaign. He carries on this work as a leader at two HBCU's (William & Mary, Virginia State University) and Fielding Graduate University- where he served on our Executive Director's (Dr. Wendy Muhlhauser-Tingblad) empathy, social justice dissertation! He serves on many Boards. He shared his life on Educating Empathy Podcast.

Karen Collins is an overachiever in all she does-as a professional and Scholar. She had three master's degrees already when she began her Doctorate. She is now in the final phase of her dissertation. Karen is a Mental health professional with a heart and intellect, this combination makes her so effective. Karen is empowering to everyone she serves with. She's a strong team player who enhances everything!

Deborah Ferrell is Senior Director, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion for General Communication Inc. in Alaska, where she worked 26 years. Deborah has determination, evidenced from accomplishments as a power lifter. Deborah has a vibrant mind and personality, shining in leadership and problem solving. Deborah is a skilled manager, communicator and presenter. She's quick to adapt in areas to fit the need.

Anthony Hotakainen is an anomaly. He began first as an intern after having performed in the first Play of Jelly Beans the Cheetah and Hope. He is an organizer, vocal artist, intellect, and a wonder in all he does! He helped with production and editing on a dissertation documentary, while a high school student!! He is the youngest on our Board but is an equal, demonstrated by the quality of his work.

Everett (Bud) Fuchs applied his biology degree, skills in written and verbal communication to create and then successfully implement, state and nationwide conservation campaigns and initiatives. He applies his gifts as a writer with his family! He wrote specific poems to support self-esteem, he read nightly to his kids, as they were growing up! He embodied social and ecological justice actions throughout his life!

Dr. Lugene Kennebrew is an inspired inner-city educator and artist. He has a doctorate in Education-Leadership for Change, who obtained licensure for teaching after his doctorate which demonstrated his commitment to the art of teaching! This equipped him to serve the students in Philadelphia, he loves! He is also an accomplished vocalist, film producer and podcast host and producer for our nonprofit.

Dr. Kinsley Titchener had a successful career as a nonprofit leader in California before she even began her doctorate. She is a highly accomplished academic writer and a children's author on the topic of empathy. Once she graduated, she pulled up stakes, sold her car, quit a dream job to instead share her talents to teach internationally first in Indonesia. She's now based in South Korea. She'll be teaching as an assistant professor at a college in South Korea. Dr. Titchener's worked with neurodivergent people.

Lee Truer is a lifelong social justice voice through the vehicles of visual art, poetry, writing fiction and within the field of education. She infuses empathy and a curiosity about finding solutions to finally realizing equity in our country and world in everything she pours her talents into! She retired as a Professor at St. Mary's University in Minneapolis, Minnesota- where she was a phenomenal graduate advisor for Dr. Wendy Muhlhauser-Tingblad, our Founder/Executive Director.

Dr. Greg T. Williams is an intellectual giant, who offers his gift to social justice! He is a Fielder Fellow. His doctoral dissertation explored the tactics and practices of voter fraud and voter suppression. We are fortunate that Dr. Williams Chairs our College Planning Committee with a determined, dedicated, and passionate fervor! He has an unmistakable ability to plan, analyze data and write with great precision.